

GOD

By Lavoisier

Verse 1

Who alone is magnificent, omnipotent and sensational Wonderful and benevolent and non-denominational
Excellent and compassionate, merciful and forgiving Glorious and illustrious and the reason your living Who's powerful and stronger than we could ever imagine Who's larger than life itself, the key to eternal wealth
With none beside Him before Him or like Him compares to Him Nothing even comes remotely close to getting near Him
Who's ways are unsearchable, who's totally incorruptible
Who's wise and righteous alone with love that's unconditional
Who wrote the only scripture that's spiritually medicinal
Who can strengthen your soul, and even heal your physical body
Who deserves all of your glory honor and praise
Who can wisen the simple so that it lengthens their days
I know your wondering and I'm sure you probably guessed it
If you haven't give me a moment I'll tell you in a second

Chorus

GOD, the one who can give you money and power
GOD, the one to call before your final hour
GOD, the one who give liberty to the captives
And if you think it's anyone else, you got it backwards
GOD, the one who can strengthen the broken hearted
GOD, He knows the end before it's even started GOD, the only one able to give salvation through JESUS CHRIST the messiah, folks, isn't He amazing?

Verse 2

Who created the heavens and put the earth underneath it
Who said let there be light and spoke it all into being
Who created man, from the dust in likeness and image
Of His own self, taking less than 7 days to finish
Who delivered his people from the hand of pharaoh in Egypt
By signs, wonders, and miracles people couldn't believe it
Who parted the red sea like as if it was nothing

Who said let my people go and punished faro for frontin'
Who gave the power to David to kill Goliath the giant
And made him king over Israel for his lack of defiance
And promised Abraham to make him a father of nations
And multiply his seed beyond all the stars in creation
And give his wife a kid though she passed the age of conception
And although they laughed at Him, He still gave em' the blessing
Who spoke from heaven just to give Noah the forewarning
And said to build an ark to be preserved after the storming
Who flooded the earth wiping men and women off the face of it
Due to their wickedness, and that's only a taste of his power
So I give Him all of my glory and honor
It obviously has gotta be my heavenly Father

Chorus

Verse 3

Who paid the price of salvation by blood of a crucifixion
Who died so we could live forever through His resurrection
Who is the word of God manifested in the flesh
Who is the Son of God, to deliver you from death
Who is seated in heaven at the right hand of the Father
Who's the only one to call on for your sins to be pardoned
Who remains the same, yesterday, today and forever
Who still has the power to get you out of whatever
And offer you deliverance, from addiction, affliction
And sickness and give you healing cause He's full of benediction
It's JESUS CHRIST! There isn't any other
Throw your hands up or put em' together for the one and only son of GOD!
